DELIVERING TODAY'S CARE WITH

YESTERDAY'S DOLLAR

Pennsylvania homecare agencies remain in immediate need of additional funding. For over a decade, these providers have dealt with chronic underfunding caused by stagnant Medicaid rates for personal assistance services (PAS). Now, they're continuing to face increased costs associated with caregiver wages, overtime, personal protective equipment, and more, as well as crisis-level workforce shortages.

Learn more at www.pahomecare.org

*2012 rates were used as a starting point only, and not a reflection of appropriate funding.

Inflation

BY THE NUMBERS

32.23%

Cumulative Inflation (CPI) 2012-2023

12%

Cumulative Provider Rate Increases 2012-2023

$20.63

Average Hourly Reimbursement

$13.35

Median DCW Hourly Wage

$17.89°

Provider average hourly cost for DCW wage, payroll taxes, overtime, benefits, workers' compensation $2.74

Average amount available/hour for travel, training, background checks, TB testing, PPE, recruitment, administrative staff, EVV, operating expenses (rent, utilities, insurance, etc.)

40%

PAS providers operating at zero or negative margins